The Traveller and Genet

As we all know /comfy/ wrote the book called "The traveller and Genet" in 05/09/2021, they are now publishing it with the help of Eris Productions. The first book is about a traveller and a genet that lurk the endless lands of chaos. They plan to pay the second books costs with first book sales, which is stupidest thing you can do in a bad economy.

Creativity Squeezer

Have you ever thought about how some popes are just too creative? Of course you didn't, you are that stupid and uncreative. But that could and should change, thats where we come into picture. Creativity squeezer can simply suck the creativity out of a pope and turn it into a juice you can consume in any way you want. What is a pope or a dosen compared to becoming slightly more creative?

Anti Fun Organisation

Do you hate seeing people having fun on the internet? We are here to help with this marvelous service called No Fun Allowed On Internet. You find websites with people that aren't miserable, our professional crew takes care of the issue. You might be wondering, how can we ruin their fun? Why would i believe in you? Well, you are asking the right questions. We are specialised on ruining fun by personatong posters and spamming their little fortress of fun to death. We specially spam websites by spamming wojaks, long depressing posts("blackpill" in fun-haver jargon), race baiting, incel posting and most importantly coomer posting. Fun-havers have no chance against our professional employees.

Agora Roads

The best kept secret of the internet

erisians wrote a letter to nasa

In 24/cfn/3187, a dweller and several erisians wrote a letter to intergalactic satanic organisation nasa about what Erisianism really stands for, without further latency the letter goes like this:

Dearest fucks.
why don't you suck seventy cocks instead of masonic dildos give us masonic dildos please!!!
singd
using my iphone

Don't let them steal our mini planet!!!

Confessions

As every true erisian knows, we have a confession booth for quite some time now. It is time for the confessions to rise to Eris. I-the glorious intern editor of the best-seller monthly Erisian magazine- will talk to Eris directly and ask for a road to enlightenment for the sinfull confessers.

+Pe

sometimes i get burnt out writing erotic fiction about other goddesses
but not athena, that would be gross

-Eris

It isn't really cheating if you didn't impregnate them, which i hope you didn't, there is nothing to be ashamed of here.

+Dw*r

My vision of Eris and Discordianism is very perverted and cruel.

-Eris

It would be a problem if it weren't, retard.

+Pe

I find Eris really boring.

I mean, she's the goddess of strife and discord, how lame is that? Like being the patron saint of 12 years old Call of Duty players.

She is only known for rolling the golden apple at that wedding. Which kind of sounds cool, until you find out what actually happened. First of all, she only rolled the apple because she got upset that she was not invited to some boring uppity wedding. If she did it just for fun I would say cool, but this is just petty and honestly disappointing. Second, the apple was actually made of gold. If it was just a regular apple, that became "golden" by the touch of Eris, we could invent all kind of cool rituals to get Eris to bless everyday objects and turn them into objects that can momentarily shut down the heavens or something, but no, it is a heavenly object that would have forever remained in the sphere of divine activity if Zeus did not give it to Paris. Third, people often claim Eris started the Trojan war but this is not true. Zeus already planned it and Eris played right into his hands. Despite being a goddess she had surprisingly little agency.

-Eris

I hope this heretic isn't alive as we speak

+Cage

I am going to murder the authors of the three posts above me and hide their bodies where nobody will find them. Eris said the murder mystery should be enough confusion to satisfy you in death.

-Eris

I didn't said such a thing, but good job

+P Yaa Sao

I just had to excommunicate a K-On! poster!

-Eris

Whatever, retard

+Dv**

I don't know man, I didn't do it.

-Eris

Does he know i know he did do it?

+Pe

I didn't do anything other than reading a gravity falls fanfic about Dipper and Pacifica in my free times for the last 3 days

-Eris

Thats one miserable existance

+Ce My confession is that I have none because there are no sins, and if there were I wouldn't care for them.

-Eris

Don't tell me what is and isn't a sin pleb

From the Erisians

Goldfishes

Goldfish are chill. They just vibe with the waves in their cage. Or aquarium, or those little bowls that people put them in films that probably count as animal abuse in the real world. Or maybe not, since nobody cares about goldfish. Why would they? The fish just swim in their little world, slowly going insane. They can't complain. Not because they have nothing to complain about, but because they are mute. Or at least we don't hear them, so they might as well be mute. I know that no goldfish ever wronged me. They never cancelled their advertising space or told me in the last minute that we need thirty centimetres about goldfish for page five. Who even measures text in centimetres? Goldfish don't, that's for sure. They just vibe.

A Poet for the Chaos

Baby

We are surrounded in choas

but every time I do
I take the long way around
becuase straight lines are for fags

The depiction of Eris is a lie!

As you may know, we have this eris speculation that has blonde hair, clear face and -Eris forbid- flat chest, this is Blasphemy. ERIS doesn't need this fake drawings, principia discordia gives everything we have to know about Eris. I believe i should quote a fellow erisian for a clear explanation.

"Lets talk about how she actually looks(from PD)

>A grosteeque women with a pale and ghastly look.

She is pale, soo brown skin is completely false.

>her eyes afire

doesn't mean shit except she doesn't look with love, she stares into your soul

>her garment ripped and torn

This is extremely important we will come to this later

>she had a concealed dagger hidden in her bosom

This is why torn clothes was important. She HIDES a dagger in her bosom while wearing torn clothes, it would be hard to hide a dagger while wearing normal goddess clothing which doesn't cover much but she does it with a ripped clothing. This means she has big and firm breasts.

Any image where she doesn't have big breasts and pale shin(skin) is completely false and the ones where she doesn't stare or wears unripped clothes are a little bit offmodel."

As you can hear from this fellow Erisian, most drawing and depictions we have is false. I thought about drawing Eris like she should be drawn but i lack the skill needed to draw a good looking women, let alone Eris. I will come back with a canonically correct Eris after i learn drawing past elementary school, until then stay away from fake and false pictures on long lonely nights. don't forget it is heresy if she doesn't have big breasts/pale skin.

News from the Nation

Screams of Heresy dirtied the Eristopia Streets

At 20/bcy/3187 14:17:58 a heretic declared his cabal is cooler than ours!!!. He thought he could just come and commit heresy in front of the religious zealots of Eristopia! He isn't very cool as a 49 kgs of fertiliser in my backyard, thats for sure.

His words deserve no traction but here they are.

My cabal is cooler than your cabal!

You heard it here first!

My cabal is simply cooler than yours!

The words Eris whispers into my gland are True!

The words Eris (supposedly) whispers into your gland are False!

I'm right! You're wrong!

I swear though, how does the Discordian Society function (if it even does) with all these different popes having different opinions about things. There's not a single agreeable thing about Discordianism.

Pope Might Commit Sudoku

at 43 confusion 3187 a pope posted "Damn that's sad..." in a zine thread in /eris/. Experts are concerned this post might indicate the horrible mental state of the pope. "This post is written in short words to compensate the mental fog caused by depression" psychologists believe. "i call dibs on his Eris cumjar" a friend of his said. "Whatevs, retard" ERIS SAID ABOUT THE VICTIM POPE. We erisians pray for his mentall well being.

News from the subhumans of outer nations

Chaos sucks Sleepy Isles once Again

On 10/6/2021, a duck soldier with serial 61135 declared war on foxes after foxes became a majority in sleepy isles. This action caused several animal groups to become hostile towards each other. Experts believe the war actually started when foxes declared themselves the superior species several days prior. As of now foxes started their second offensive wave with over 40 soldiers while ducks and wolfs are on their first offensive wave with 38 and 10 soldiers respectively. As the war triangle continues, penguin and weeb tribes came into the war with high soldier numbers. Our trustworthy spies inside sleepy isles say Weebs are in support of wolf and fox species while penguins place themselves against weeps without supporting a side in the war.

The scent of romance fills the misery town

In the passing days misery town saw love shine and dim between a artist of great ability with unknown gender and a exceptionally cool guy. The relation started in a cold and lonely day where your hearth beat is the only friend you have, inside the tavern in the 3405th street. A exceptionally cool guy with shining eyes and a fat ego barged in and declared himself the coolest guy in the spooky town. This action caused several residents including a artist to start arguing what is cool and what isn't. As the night progressed the dry crowd in the tavern left except the artist and the cool man. A new love sparkled that night.

Escaping a Anarchist Prison Camp

Take Six Deep Breaths and Clear Your Mind

or...

How I Escaped an Anarchist Prison Camp and Learned to Stop Worrying and Love the [REDACTED]

After having read The Genocidal Zen Hermit's Guide to Solipsism, as published by the Gideons, 5th edition, I had quite the revelation. Finally, an ideology I could get behind! or try to front run... or, at the very least, have no interest in trying to run circles around. A vision came to me and I shall recount it here and now.

Popes, I say to you, as revolutions will inevitably come and go, your backs shall undoubtedly be the first against the emergency exit doors(push bar to open) and, rest assured, the alarm cables will have already been cut by [REDACTED].

You may be asking yourself, what about the snipers on the roof top? Well, you'll just have to run in a zig-zag fashion, but, if you approach this with the proper mindset, it can actually be a lot of fun and it's also really good exercise. It also helps if you are already adept at sparrow-hopping.

Now, when you reach the tree line, assuming you have successfully managed to not step on any of the land mines (again, sparrow-hopping helps here), you'll still have to keep running, but not so much in a zig-zag fashion anymore, but not in a straight line either, because you might run into a tree or trip over a rock. There's no need to embarrass yourself like that.

Don't worry so much about the guard dogs that will still be in pursuit. Once you have found your way running through the forest, they will inevitably give up, turn tail, and go home, as they are only invested in this so much as to put on a show for their masters, be given treats, and receive head pats.

Eventually, after having continued to run for a while, remember it's good exercise and we could all use it, you will find yourself in an open grove, eerily quiet and illuminated by the faintest of moonlight... sorry, but you are going to have to spend the whole day running. Anyway, it is there, there where you will be met by [REDACTED] and she will give you a [REDACTED].

Caldwell and His Lies and Words

Surely there cannot be a coincidence as sure as this.

I bring you the tale of Richard S. Caldwell.

He is one of the translators of Hesiod's Theogony, our primary source of knowledge on Eris's brood.

Now, there are a lot of translators of the Theogony, but Caldwell is the one quoted by Wikipedia. However, Caldwell mistranslated the theogony. Most importantly, he mistranslated one of the lines that describes Eris's brood.

>Νείκεά τε ψευδέας τε Λόγους Ἀμφιλογίας τε

Now you might think, how can one mistake be so bad?

Well, it's come to be the case that Wikipedia (world's most used encyclopedia) has now come to list two entirely new castes of cacodeamons that have never existed!

Caldwell translated the above text as >the Neikea (Quarrels), the Pseudea

(Lies), the Logoi (Stories), the Amphillogiai (Disputes)

Note that the original ancient Greek line consists of only 3 instances of " τε/and". So how do you turn 3 into 4?

The "Pseudea" and the "Logoi" do not exist, and never have. That's because the former is an adjective to the latter. Lying Words, not lies and words.

The true demons that do exist outside of Caldwell's mind are commonly called the "Pseudologoi".

However, as we all know thanks to Eris divine, confusion is king. It's also funny that "lies and words" turned out to be lying words. Very symbolic.

So what are we to do?

Can we allow this absolutely HERETICAL error to continue to exist in the face of our Goddess?

Or must we perhaps look on in smugness as the populace continues to confuse itself, slipping on the steps as they attempt to understand the glory of Eris?

in conclusion.
