

Welcome

Now with a choice of forty-four different titles, from several different publishers and some of the best developers around, there really is something for everyone in the Sold Out range.

There are games to suit people of all ages which will run on computers of all ages (286 and above). And, with our continually updated website and technical support lines, it's easy to get straight into the action.

All our titles are available from good retailers in your local high street but, if you are having difficulty finding a certain game in stock, we do offer a mail order service.

So why not take a look at what's on offer...
(At this price it's no wonder they're selling out!)

Technical Support

If you cannot get one of our games to work straight away, the first thing you should do is refer to the README.TXT in the root directory or your CD-ROM. This will contain the latest information related to the game you are installing and details how to fix memory problems that can be associated with DOS products.

The next best way to find a solution is to visit our website. Our list of Frequently Asked Questions is constantly updated with answers to your questions so it's a great place to start. We also provide links to the most common CD-ROM, sound and video card manufacturers so finding drivers couldn't be easier! Or just send us an email and we promise we'll give you a swift response.

If all else fails or you don't have internet access, either write to us at Tech Support, Sold Out Sales & Marketing Ltd, 122 Southwark Street, London SE1 0SW, or call us on 0171 928 9655. Don't forget to have details of your PCs configuration before contacting us.

Dune

You play Paul Atreides, son of Duke Leto. You have just arrived on the desert planet Dune with your family which has been granted the right by the Emperor to mine the galaxy's most precious resource - spice.

Previously this right was held solely by the Harkonnens, sworn enemies of the House of Atreides, who still control a third of the planet. As Paul you must win over the local inhabitants of Dune the Fremen - slaves of the Harkonnens - and to side with you in a war to rid Dune of all Harkonnens.

The 7th Guest

The mansion of the master toy maker, Henry Stauf has been abandoned for a long time; rotting ever since the children started dying, ever since the six guests came.

Now there are only the eerie lights. The terrifying screams. The unearthly wailing. Now there's only you. As you move from room to haunted room, scenes from that night of horror come to life. There was another guest. Stauf's game is not over.

Only you can end the nightmare and discover the secret of The Seventh Guest. Trilobyte's first Interactive Drama is designed to keep you constantly unsettled with a combination of vivid imagery, special effects, and cinematic shots.

Creature Shock

It is the year 2123 and the massive over-population of the Earth has forced the human race to investigate the colonisation of the other planets. To this end, the Tribal class survey ships were constructed and each dispatched with its own mission to find mankind a new home. The Myrmidon to Mars, the Aztec to Venus, and the Amazon to the moons of Jupiter and Saturn.

Four years later, almost at the end of its voyage, all contact with the Amazon was lost; all but the faint signal of an emergency distress beacon.

Equipped with one of the new Lynx FTL Scoutships, you must discover what fate befell the most powerful ship in the survey fleet and its crew.

Manic Karts

Do you know what it feels like to skim across the floor, mere inches off the tarmac, at speeds of up to 120mph, with only a crash helmet and a prayer for protection? If you don't then you're about to find out.

We'd like to welcome you to the world of kart racing, a world in which driving skill, as opposed to engine power, is the most important feature. Unless you can learn a race track, pick a good racing line, and ward off other competitors then you won't survive long.

F14 Fleet Defender

Fleet defender catapults you into the skies above the North Cape, the Mediterranean and, with the Scenario Disk, the Korean Peninsula and Indian Ocean. You'll fly against opponents ranging from 'Bear' bombers to 'Flanker' fighters but you won't be on your own; you'll have a wingman and other carrier-based aircraft to help you.

Then, when you've dealt with the threat you'll still have to land on the carrier: using a combination of skill, nerve and lightning quick reactions. Plus, Fleet Defender features some of the most striking graphics ever seen on a flight sim. Truly, this Tomcat'll take your breath away!

Subwar 2050

You are a mercenary sub pilot, fighting battles for corporate territory beneath the waves. It is 2050AD and the oceans have become a vital source of food, energy and minerals. It is a wealth that must be defended in an environment that favours stealthy sabotage. Pilot four different types of submarine, and explore thousands of square miles of accurately mapped 3-D underwater seascapes, in seven different multi-mission campaigns: the Antarctic Ocean, the North Atlantic, the South China Sea, the Sea of Japan, the infamous Bermuda Triangle, the North Cape and the Mediterranean.

Breathtaking 'simulated combat' allows you to master manoeuvres such as knuckles and deep dives before entering a mission, while a comprehensive training scenario allows you to learn the art of underwater combat.

Jimmy White's Snooker

Welcome to Jimmy White's Whirlwind Snooker, by far and away the finest computer-based snooker simulation in the world. Jimmy White's Whirlwind Snooker adheres to the rules of real snooker, and the balls obey the laws of physics to the letter. It allows one or two players to practice against each other, set up and perform trick shots or compete against one another or four increasingly challenging computer controlled opponents (one of whom is Jimmy White himself), and plenty more besides!

"This knocks everything else into touch. The ball movement's fantastic and everything in the real thing is here — in fact there are shots you can do here that you can't do in the real thing. It's like being there, under the light. The only difference is your fingertips don't get to touch the cue or the table."

Conspiracy

The KGB or Committee for State Security was the most feared and pervasive intelligence gathering network in the world. It literally controlled the lives of Soviet citizens from the cradle to the grave. The player is cast as GRU Captain Maksim Rukov who has been mysteriously transferred to Department P of the KGB Second Directorate in Moscow.

Department P was founded in Perestroika's heyday. Its function was to investigate possible cases of KGB corruption. As the player sets out to discover the murderer of private detective Golitsin, the stench of treachery and deceit becomes more and more overpowering. Who can he trust? His dead father? The Reap

Some computer gaming styles are timeless, and highly destructive finger pumping shoot-em-ups are no exception. Having proved supremely popular in arcades around the world, this particular genre of games have subsequently dazzled audiences on all the major video game formats. Starved of real arcade action in the past,

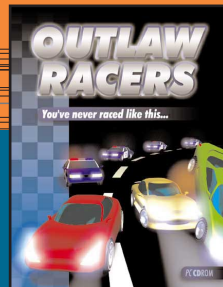

PC gamers now have the opportunity to experience the type of game their system has been crying out for. Advanced development technology has allowed this shoot-em-up to move ever closer to the perfect adrenalin rush gaming experience. Welcome to a new breathtaking white-knuckle-ride of a game. Welcome to THE REAP - adrenalin in its purest form.

Outlaw Racers

No Driving-Sim is quite like Outlaw Racers. For the first time you can race your car around city streets and highways without being confined to a specific route or track. Turn left or right at lights or burn straight through them, if you wish. But don't forget... the police may be hot on your tail...

Randomly generated world for each environment, according to player options,

Both in-city and highway driving

Head left/right turn during driving

Real traffic signals, 4-way intersections

Various driving conditions (fog, rain, etc.)
