

A series of six horizontal grey bars of increasing length from top to bottom. The first bar is the shortest, and each subsequent bar is approximately 1.2 times longer than the previous one.

For more information about the study, please contact Dr. John Smith at (555) 123-4567 or via email at john.smith@researchinstitute.org.